Beste Medelanders,

As I am writing this report, I look back at some great events that have been organized by Henk (André Rieu & the Anniversary Lunch) and Machiel (Ice skating).

There have also been some really nice sponsored bus-trips (the Seniors and the Wednesday Card Club).

As well as Sponsored Lunches by the Sunday Drives.

Then upcoming there are the 50th Anniversary Party in October at the Windmills and our Christmas lunch at the RDC later on in the year.

During our last Committee meeting, we were presented some great news by Henk, who informed us that the Bingo Club is now the second largest. We can all thank Henk for this great achievement. He never gives up.

With the AGM in sight, I would like to invite everyone to come along and join us as we now conduct the AGM meeting with the newly approved and accepted Constitution.

I am very pleased to have already received nominations for all positions on our Committee as the entire Committee will be reselected on a yearly basis in line with the new rules.

But anyone else who would like to join us on the Committee, is more than welcome to contact me for more information, more hands make light work. Come and help us, help your Club.

And don't forget to put our 50th Anniversary Party on the 26th of October in your diaries.

I hope that some of you are now reading my report on the new table display stands. You will see them pop up at our events from now on.

Tot snel,

Eric van Waaijenburg,
President.

Members' Notice.

Those Members, who are ill or are recovering from an accidental trauma, the Neerlandia Committee wishes you a Speedy Recovery. And to any Member, who has lost a loved one recently, sincere Condolences to the family from the Neerlandia Committee.

Editorial/In Memoriam.

Older Members are passing away at an alarming rate, as you will notice in the In Memoriam Column. However, there are a couple of people, that deserve a special mention.

Nel Stapelbroek. She and her husband had a Dutch Butcher shop in Iglewood in the very early days of Neerlandia, when fundraising was important. As true Members, they were always willing to contribute Dutch smallgoods, whenever we held a raffle, which was often. Later on in life, when she was a Senior, she was the President of the Senior Club (De Jeugd van Vroeger) for close to two decades.

Henk Vogels Snr.

Henk's father, also named Henk Vogels, was one of our original Members, who was always busy with volunteer duties for the Sub-Clubs, as well as introducing his children to Neerlandia life.

But what the family was most famous for was their cycling achievements, whether it was on the racetrack or in the Tour de France. Sincere condolences to all those left behind.

Pieter L. Editor.

A more recent Image of our King and Queen on the Dutch Flag, which was kindly donated by Mrs. Dienie Brust.

Dienie Brust is 85 years old and she is a typical Dutch migrant. Born in Overijssel, she and her husband migrated to South Africa in 1956 and again in 1963 to WA. The Brust family established an Engineering Company, located in Welshpool, some 50 years ago. It is still going strong, managed by their 2 sons, after their father passed away. Dienie is now enjoying retirement in St. Ives Murdoch and can be proud of what her family has achieved.

We, from Neerlandia, wish to thank her for the wonderful gift, shown above on the flag.

Henk Oorschot.

The June Maas & Waal at the RDC.

At the end of June, during the monthly Maas & Waal Drinks the Dutch Ambassador, her husband and Dutch Embassy Staff came to enjoy a drink and a meal while mingling with about sixty people, who were all in good form, determined to have a good night. Again, Armanda and her staff had prepared lovely meals and the Dutch Nasi Goreng was a favourite. Heather and Marie had a busy night behind the bar and, like everyone else, they thoroughly enjoyed the relaxed atmosphere of the evening.

Something else that you may be interested in, is that Neerlandia's Committee recently introduced a new event called "OPEN MIC". Open Mic gives amateur entertainers the opportunity to perform during the Maas & Waal Drinks.

In June everyone enjoyed the voice and guitar play of Steve Dillon, who sang popular 80's- and 90's songs.

Also present was Mr. Anthony Willinge, the new Dutch Honorary Consul of WA, his wife Jacqueline and their kids.

Lianna (L.M)

Eric, our President with the Dutch Ambassador Mrs Mario Derckx, her husband Mr Jozef IJzermanns and Mr Anthony Willinge, the Dutch Hon Consul of WA.

Bingo at The RDC & André Rieu at the Event Cinemas

Bingo on Wednesday 7th of August. Whoopee!! We had 28 players around the Bingo tables.

BINGO BULLETIN. From your friendly Bingo Organiser.

There is an exciting time ahead for the Bingo group with the increased number of players attending, which means that the prizes are also increasing. Over the last 4 game days, the following won the free game: Ida Jutte, John Norder and Henk Uyen, Marion Gerritsen and Emma Boekhout with Greta van Sant.

Also on 7th of August, the 2nd game was loaded with an extra $25, so John van Gentevoort won $42.

The Jackpot got to $95 and did not go off, so more chances for you next time around.

As mentioned before, when there are 26 players attending, 2 players play for free and now, when there are 28 players attending, the third one gets a large box of chocolates and that was won on the last game day by a brand new Bingo player: Wil Hijmans. Great !!

When will you join us around the Bingo tables and share in the fun we all have ??

The Andre Rieu Maastricht Concert at the Event Cinemas in Innaloo.

On Sunday 28th of July, 85 Members and friends, enjoyed a magnificent performance of André Rieu and his "Johan Strauss Orchestra" at the Event Cinemas in Innaloo. This Concert was performed at the famous Vrijthof in Maastricht and than beamed all around the world to the major Cinemas.

This is now the third time that Neerlandia has sponsored the showing of these Concerts of André Rieu for the benefit of its Members and once again it was a memorable experience to see so many of our Members that were so delighted with his performance on the big screen one again.

Many of us, I am sure, have a large amount of DVD's of his Concerts, but to see it all on the big screen is just what makes it all worth while to travel all the way to Innaloo.

It is hard to believe that André is about to turn 70 years of age, but that is still young compared with the 105 year old lady, whom he was dancing the waltz with.

Hopefully, we can organise his next performance again in the near future.

Henk Oorschot. Your Event Co-ordinator.

The July Maas & Waal at the RDC

The Maas and Waal Borrel on Friday night 26th of July was a cosy get-together with small groups of Members enjoying the good food provided by Armanda, as usual. During part of the evening we enjoyed the music provided by a guitarist, singing from the stage which gave the evening a country touch. It would be great if more Members would join in on these evenings to meet and enjoy being Dutch.
Henk Oorschot.

The July Sunday Drive.

This was held on Sunday the 7th of July. The weather was wet and some regulars were absent, but we still had enough people to fill 5 tables. After morning coffee and cake, we were ready to start the battle for the prizes. We knew that the Karl's Bar was needed to be vacated at 3pm. And by 2.20pm everyone had completed their 4 games and for this all players should receive a gold star!! Thanks for the cooperation. When the scorecards were handed in, we noticed that the scores were not very high this month. But the interesting fact was that, once again, we had repeated prize winners, as both Murray and Tiny were amongst the prizes last month as well! The final results were:

1st prize: Freda Hovingh	6819 points
2nd prize: Murray Koedijk	6798 points
3rd prize: Tiny Swart	6536 points

The winners in July. l.t.r.: Tiny Swart, 3rd Prize; Freda Hovingh, 1st Prize, Murray Koedyk, 2nd Prize.

The August Sunday Drive.

This was held on Sunday the 4th of August. A lot of regular players were absent and we only just managed to get 3 tables togeth. Lunch, as usual, was superb and very enjoyable. The competition fierce as usual and was completed very early. (I wonder whether the Eagles playing that afternoon was the reason). The competition was very tight and the scores were not all that high. Murray was once again amongst the winners!

And those winners were:

1st prize: Thijs Gorter	6685 points
2nd prize: Murray Koedyk	6560 points
3rd prize: Con van der Putten	6399 point

Piet L. (Life Member)

2 Important Announcements.

1. The September Sunday Drive will be on Sunday the 8th of September, as the first Sunday in September is Father's Day!
2. There will be NO Sunday Drive in October due to the October Fest.

A Klaverjas Rule Change.

Committee Members Piet S. and Piet L. were made aware of some grizzles. As your Committee, we have decided that the best way to deal with these, is to adopt an International Klaverjas Organisation rule regarding the Dealing of he Cards. This rule reads as follows:

Dealing the Cards.

The Dealer shuffles the cards minimal of 3 times. Then the opposition MUST cut the deck.

The Dealer, will then proceed to deal the cards 3-2-3 as usual. (No more shuffling.) If the Dealer omits to adhere to this new rule, the cards should be given back to him so that the Dealer can start over again.

This new rule will be implemented for the Sunday Drive starting in September. And for the Thursday Night Club, as from the 29th of August, the beginning of the next competition.

Copies of these international rules can be made available for those interested.

Your Committee, Piet L. & Piet S.

The winners of the August Sunday Drive. L.t.r.: Con van van der Putten, 3rd Prize; Thijs Gorter, 1st Prize; Murray Koedyk, 2nd Prize.

WHAT CAN ONE DO IN HEAVEN.

On their way to the church to get married, a young Catholic couple were involved in a fatal car crash. Next thing you know, they find themselves sitting outside the pearly gates waiting for St. Peter to start the process of getting them into heaven.

While waiting, they begin to wonder if it was possible to get married in heaven?

When St. Peter finally showed up, they asked him.

St Peter said: "I don't know. This is the first time anyone has asked. Let me go find out", and he leaves them sitting at the gate.

After three months, St Peter finally returns, looking somewhat bedraggled.

"Yes," he informs the couple: "You can get married in heaven".

"Great!" said the couple: "But we were just wondering, what if things don't work out? Can we also get a divorce in Heaven?"

"You must be joking," says St. Peter, red-faced with anger and slamming his clipboard on the ground.

"What's wrong?" asked the couple.

"Oh, come on!" St. Peter shouted: "It took me three months to find a Priest up here.

Do you have any idea how long it might take me to find a willing Lawyer?"

SLEEPING WITH MICK IN THE SAME ROOM.

The guys were on a bike tour. No one wanted to room with Mick, because he snored so badly. They decided it wasn't fair to make one of them stay with him the whole time, so they voted to take turns.

The first guy slept with Mick and comes to breakfast the next morning with his hair a mess and his eyes all bloodshot.

They said: "Man, what happened to you?" He said: "Mick snored so loudly, I just sat up and watched him all night"

The next night it was a different guy's turn. In the morning, same thing, hair all standing up, eyes all bloodshot.

They said: "Man, what happened to you? You look awful!" He said: "Man, that Mick shakes the roof with his snoring. I watched him all night."

The third night was Bill's turn. He was a tanned, older biker, a man's man. The next morning he came to breakfast bright-eyed and bushy-tailed.

"Good morning!" he said. They couldn't believe it.

They said: "Man, what happened?" He said: "Well, we got ready for bed. I went and tucked Mick into bed, patted him on his bottom and kissed him good night on the lips. Mick sat up and watched me all night."

Moral: "With age comes wisdom."

FROZEN CARBURETTOR.

People frequently complain about the police, but you rarely hear about the positive things they do, such as this incident involving a biker and a frozen carburettor. Last January, on a bitterly cold winter's day, a North Dakota State Trooper on patrol, came upon a motorcyclist, who was stalled by the roadside. The biker was swathed in heavy protective clothing and wearing a full-face helmet to protect the face from the cold weather.

"What's the matter?" asked the Trooper.

"Carburettor is frozen," was the terse reply.

"Pee on it. That'll thaw it out."

"I can't," said the biker.

"OK, watch me closely and I'll show you."

The Trooper unzipped and promptly warmed the carburettor as promised. Moments later the bike started and the rider drove off, waving. A few days later, the local State Troopers' office received a note of thanks from the father of the motorcyclist.

It began: "On behalf of my daughter Janice . . . "

Zandvoort – International Beach resort

Zandvoort is a Municipality in the Province of North Holland, the Netherlands.

It is one of the major beach resorts of the Netherlands; it has a long sandy beach, bordered by coastal dunes. It is also the site of the country's most important auto racing circuit, Circuit Zandvoort.

There is a nudist beach located about 2 km to the South, there are 6 cafés /restaurants.

The Flag and Coat of Arms of Zandvoort.

The Municipality of Zandvoort consists of the communities of Bentveld and Zandvoort; it had a population of 16,954 in 2017.

History:

Zandvoort was known to exist as far back as 1100 AD, when it was called “Sandevoerde”, a combination of "sand" and "voorde", meaning ford.

The Village was dependent on fishing for many centuries until the 19th century, when it started to transform itself into a seaside resort, following the pattern set by similar towns in the United Kingdom.

In 1828, the first resort was inaugurated. In the middle of the same century, potato cultivation started in the dunes.

In 1881, the railway station near the coast opened, followed by a tram connection to Haarlem in 1899, which greatly increased access to the beach for tourists.

In 1905, one of the earliest Dutch fictional films was shot in the town.

During World War II, Zandvoort was heavily damaged. On May 23, 1942, beach access was no longer permitted and several months later the town was almost completely vacated. Resorts and avenues were demolished to make way for the coastal fortifications of the Atlantic Wall.

After the war, the town's growth accelerated, matching the growth in tourism.

A popular seaside for Europeans.

Racing Circuit Zandvoort:

In 1948, Circuit Zandvoort was built, hosting the Dutch Grand Prix from 1948 to 1985.

Racing Circuit redeveloped:

Following drivers' complaints, the Zandvoort Circuit had been extensively modified.

It had been lined with Armco and the cars were protected from the sand dunes and track-side obstacles. New pits were built, and the circuit also saw a chicane placed before Bosuit, the very high-speed corner that went into the pit-straight.

However in the 1973 race, disaster struck. In a race, that was thought to be one of the most well organized Grands Prix yet seen in Zandvoort, it was actually disorganization and a total lack of clear communication, that would be ultimately responsible for what was to happen.

On the eighth lap of the race, Briton Roger Williamson, in only his second ever Formula One race, crashed heavily near Tunnel Oost and his car caught fire while scraping along the tarmac. Williamson was uninjured during the crash; but he could not free himself from the car.

Williamson's countryman, David Purley, stopped alongside, crossed the track and ran over to the burning car. Purley tried in vain to turn the car upright. There appeared to have been ample time to right the car and pull Williamson out, but as desperately as he tried, Purley was unable to do it by himself, and the marshals, who were not wearing flame retardant overalls, were unable and unwilling to help due to the intense heat. Race control assumed that it was Purley's car that had crashed and that the driver had escaped unharmed. Many drivers, who saw Purley waving them down to stop, assumed that he was trying to put a fire out from his own car, having safely exited it. And thus did not know that a second driver had been involved. As a result, the race continued at full pace while Purley desperately tried to save the life of Williamson. Due to a group of race officials standing around Williamson's burning car doing absolutely nothing to help and even hindering the situation, by throwing away the fire extinguisher Purley was using. Purley was later on awarded the George Medal for his actions. The race was won by Tyrrell driver Jackie Stewart (who broke Jim Clark's record for the most career Grand Prix victories that weekend) and his teammate François Cevert finished 2nd; but no one felt like celebrating; it was one of the darkest moments in the history of the sport.

On 14 May 2019, it was announced that the race would return in 2020 after a 35-year hiatus.

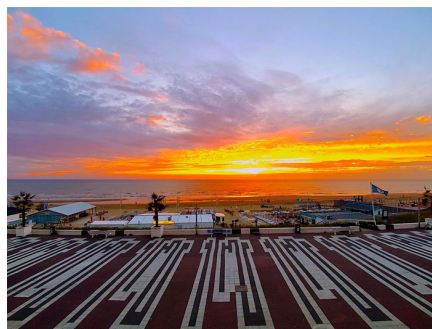

Peak season holiday crowds.

Zandvoort continues to be a major Dutch resort location, where nearly half of all employment is related to tourism.

The Dutch singer Wim Duyn's song: "De Eerste Trein naar Zandvoort (First train to Zandvoort)", modeled on the American song Chattanooga Choo Choo and chronicling chaos and mayhem on the first seaside train, was a hit in the summer of 1983.
